Describe this peer's greatest strengths / contributions to the project:

Molly was great to let us use her apartment as a meeting place. Another thing I love about Molly is how easily she goes with the flow and is never takes offense. When Andrea and I decided to make a few changes to the accompanist assignments, Molly was perfectly understanding and flexible. She even volunteered to arrange a different version of one of our songs.

During the performance, Molly was poised and I could feel her confidence and love for what she was doing, exude from her.

Describe how this peer could have made a stronger contribution to the project:

At this time, there is nothing Molly could have done to strengthen her contributions.
