Describe this peer's greatest strengths / contributions to the project:

Molly is very skilled when it comes to music, and she does an excellent job imparting her knowledge to the cast. She has done a good job training the cast, and her one-on-one sessions with cast members, in particular, noticeably raise the quality of their performance. Molly is a hard worker who takes her role as Musical Director very seriously, and we are lucky to have her.

Describe how this peer could have made a stronger contribution to the project:

Molly does not always disagree well with others. She approached the audition process from a different point of view than the rest of the team, which caused minor friction until the disagreements could be resolved. Similarly, tension occasionally develops between Molly and a cast member over approaches to the music. Although none of these conflicts are solely her fault, Molly can work on her skills for deescalating such situations.
