Describe your greatest strengths / contributions to the project:

I played multiple roles and put time into making each one a unique and full character. I was on time to every rehearsal and acted in a professional manner. I did my best to apply the notes I was given to improve my performance. I also met with some other members of the cast to give vocal coaching. I was very committed to having this be the best show that it could.

Describe how you could have made a stronger contribution to the project:

I could have put more research into the time period. There were some documentaries and movies that were recommended that we watch, but I was unable to find the time.
